Mazur Media Wins Big at Telly Awards

Mazur Media, LLC of Altoona, PA and TDP, LLC of Lanham, MD wins three Telly Awards for excellence in film and video productions. All three programs were produced for Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services. The Telly Awards is the premier award in the film and video production industry.

Altoona – April 12, 2007 – Mazur Media and TDP wins the Telly Awards highest honor, a Silver Telly Award for "Burnout Among Surveyors" a tele-satellite training broadcast about burnout prevention among Medicare's site surveyors.

Mazur Media and TDP won two Bronze Telly Awards for "Mind / Body Medicine" - a ninety-minute program on holistic medicine; and for "Loss of a Body Part or Body Function".

Mazur Media has posted excerpts on its website at <http://www.mazurmediacom.com/index.php?display=OurClients.html>

Mazur Media, alongside Maryland partner company TDP, LLC, provides Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Service's nursing home surveyors with up-to-date information on best practices. This information contributes to the overall improvement of nursing home surveys. Our scriptwriter worked with a highly regarded Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Service expert to develop a video script. The script consisted of presentation segments from the subject matter expert and carefully created "case study" reenactments. Combined, these elements convey the necessary facts and put a "human face" on the information allowing a clear illustration of both the positive and negative outcomes of these practices.

The video was then meshed with live question & answer segments and sent out via satellite to over 115 downlink locations across the country.
